A renewed mind and fresh vision.

Marked

WHY WE STAY SMALL

Accountability that actually changes lives

We intentionally keep each cohort to 12-24 women so every woman is seen, known, and held accountable to her goals. Small circles mean real conversations, personal mentor feedback, and growth that lasts beyond the program.

Our growth vision

Through the year, we desire to welcome more women by adding mentors and building the revenue to create unforgettable experiences for every lady we serve, without losing the closeness that makes this work.

BRIDGING THE GAP

Opening the world to every woman 2027

Some of the women in our program have never been outside their city or country. The Tulum, Mexico celebration opens the door to a new world of experiences.

Departure: April 22, 2027 | Return: April 25, 2027

Through your sponsorship, impact her one moment and one experience at a time.

THE CELEBRATION EXPERIENCE

Tulum Celebration 2027

April 22, 2027 departure | April 25, 2027 return

Space to connect, celebrate, and see beyond the familiar.

The property photos featured on our trip page bring the vision to life: a beachfront setting, shared moments, and room for sisterhood.

Partner opportunities can include milestone gifts, useful travel products, hosted activities, and agreed experience recaps. Photos show the featured property, not a past cohort trip or a guarantee of specific activities.

WHY SPONSOR

Your brand belongs in her growth story

Connect with a focused community of 12-24 women per cohort who are building in faith, business, and life. Explore collaborations with emerging micro-influencers and community voices, pairing meaningful impact with authentic brand storytelling.

Values-led alignment

Support women's growth, entrepreneurship, mentorship, and access to new experiences. Let your brand values show up through action.

Authentic brand content

Co-create reels, photos, product demonstrations, and experience recaps that show how your brand fits into real life.

Honest product stories

Invite voluntary product trials, candid testimonials, and feedback. Build trust through genuine experiences, not scripted praise.

Focused brand initiatives

Shape a campaign around a product launch, service, or community initiative with a clear theme and agreed deliverables.

A small cohort offers depth of connection, not a mass-audience promise. Creator participation, audience fit, and content commitments are confirmed for each partnership.

BEYOND A LOGO

Turn your support into shared experiences

Meet her in meaningful spaces

Explore member-portal spotlights, cohort gatherings, mentor-led workshops, milestone gifts, and celebration-trip experiences. Social features and email spotlights can extend a campaign when agreed.

A campaign built around your goals

Choose an initiative, match it to a relevant cohort moment, and invite interested women to participate. Agree content formats, timing, calls to action, and brand-review boundaries before launch.

Example: a confidence-building brand initiative

A partner provides a useful product or service, hosts a practical session, and invites participants to share their experience through a short video or photo story. An agreed portal feature and trackable link connect the story back to the brand.

Make the value visible: agree reporting in advance, such as participation, content delivered, available views and engagement, tracked clicks, and voluntary feedback. These show what happened; sales and audience growth are not guaranteed.

Partnership care: participation and testimonials are voluntary and honest; sponsored content is disclosed. Content reuse, permissions, duration, and any exclusivity are agreed in writing. Cohort size is not a verified follower count or combined social reach.
